JOUHTENINEN

Jouhteninen is probably the most popular day-trip destination among the islands of Lake Höytiäinen. This is because of its interesting history, the tornado that changed the island landscape in 2004 and the protected ridges and shores on the island. The island has two short circular trails with campfire sites. You can visit Jouhteninen on your own or take part on a trip arranged by a local fishing tourism entrepreneur.

TRAILS

HERAJÄRVI HIKING TRAIL

The Herajärvi hiking trail starts from the national landscape of Koli, takes you across chains of hills southwards around Lake Herajärvi. The trail consists of two circular trails: southern trail (about 30 km) and northern trail (about 38 km). The Kiviniemi farm providing accommodation and programme services is located at the place where the southern and northern trails share the same route.

KIEHINEN HIKING TRAIL

This trail runs in the lesser-known southern part of the Koli National Park and features some of the rarer treasures of the area. On your hike, you can learn more about the values of the national park and operating in the wilderness. The trail is partially a circular trail and has sections of different lengths (between 3 and 19 kilometres). You can choose the alternatives suited for your hiking skills and physical strength. The trail has more than one starting point.

KOLINPOLKU TRAIL

The hiking trail starts at the Kontilahden Uuro service station and takes you all the way to Koli. The trail runs through the Kolvananuuro nature reserve and at its end it merges with the Herajärvi hiking trail. There are several well-kept lean-to shelters and campfire sites along the trail. The trail has a total length of 63 km.

KOLVANANUURO

The Kolvananuuro gorge located on the border between Kontiolahti and Joensuu is well-suited for a day trip. A circular trail of 5 kilometres featuring lean-to shelters runs through the area. The trail is demanding, steep and rocky at places and thus you should reserve enough time and sturdy shoes for the hike. The campfire site is easily accessible from the parking place in Kontiolahti.

KONTIONPOLKU TRAILS

Kontionpolku trails form the most popular network of mountain biking, trail running and walking trails in Kontiolahti. Kontionpolku trails consist of four circular trails: Kontioniemi trail (9 km), Stadium trail (8,5 km), Salpalinja trail (5 km) and Vällilampi trail (13,5 km). They are connected with the Jaama trail (about 60 km) and, via Lykynlampi, with the Kinttupolku trails in Liperi. There is also trail connecting Kontionpolku trails with Kolinpolku trails (63 km), which takes you all the way to the national landscape of Koli. Kontiolahti harbour (Satamatie 4) and the biathlon stadium (Napakympintie 24) are good starting points for your hike.
